CANON EARNS A DISTINGUISHED EDITOR'S CHOICE AWARD

Canon U.S.A., Inc. is a proud recipient of a Better Buys Editor's Choice 2019 Award in the color MFP category for the imageRUNNER ADVANCE C5500 III series.

BetterBuys EDITOR'S CHOICE 2019

Awards are given to a select group of office equipment products as a sign of excellence in quality, performance, and value. The recipients are determined by evaluating features including price, speed, cost-per-page, paper handling, and any unique feature such as mobile printing capabilities, within each respective category.

Melissa Pardo-Bunte, editor of Better Buys, states that "Canon's imageRUNNER ADVANCE C5500 III series is designed to help businesses streamline workflow operations while keeping information safe. The solutions comes equipped with security features designed to protect against intrusion and preserve an organization's confidential information."
