Canon's imageRUNNER and imageRUNNER ADVANCE product lines have been honored with Buyers Laboratory LLC's (BLI) 2013 first-ever "Line of the Year" award for Energy Efficiency.

Canon's outstanding accomplishments in energy-efficient product design help reduce power consumption and carbon emissions for each model. This commitment to expanding innovative systems helps distinguish Canon as an industry leader, not only in the field of technology, but also as a corporate citizen.

Canon's efforts, together with your own environmental and sustainability initiatives, can help leave a greener footprint on the earth for future generations.
